The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients—Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper, will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompained with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

HAY FEVER

Indigestion

Stomach trouble is but a symptom of, and not in itself a true disease. We think of Dyspepsia, Heartburn, and Indigestion as real diseases, yet they are symptoms only of a certain specific Nerve sickness—nothing else.

It was this fact that first correctly led Dr. Shoop in the creation of that now very popular Stomach Remedy—Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Going direct to the stomach nerves, alone brought that success and favor to Dr. Shoop and his Restorative. Without that original and highly vital principle, no such lasting accomplishments were ever to be had.

For stomach distress, bloating, biliousness, bad breath and sallow complexion, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—and see for yourself what it can and will do. We sell and cheerfully recommend MURDER IN WASHINGTON.

Because she refused to entertain his proposal of marriage and had ordered him from her presence, Harry L Holmes, for two months a driver for the Knox Express Company, last night shot and killed Mrs. Mary Hamilton, a widow of little over a year, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Groves, at 1423 Duncan street northeast Washington. After firing the fatal shot, Holmes pressed the revolver to his head and attempted to kill himself. The trigger refused to work, and after knocking down Mrs. Groves, who attempted to wrest the pistol from him, he made his escape through a rear door.

Holmes fired three shots at Mrs. Hamilton, the third piercing the woman's breast. With the last shot the woman fell screaming, "My God, he has killed me." Mrs. Grover, the only eye-witness, rushed upon Holmes and attempted to snatch the revolver.

"If you interfere with me, I will shoot you full of holes," Holmes is said to have told the woman.

Realizing that the man was desperate, Mrs. Groves brushed past him and fell beside her daughter, who was murmuring incoherently. Holmes went into an adjoining room. Mrs. Groves quickly followed. As she crossed the threshold Holmes had the revolver at his temple and was pulling on the trigger. The mechanism apparently was out of order, but as Holmes made a last desperate effort to discharge the weapon, Mrs. Groves grasped his wrist. The man threw her from him and, leaping over a chair, ran through the kitchen and made his escape by scaling the fence.

Mrs. Groves made her way back to her daughter's side, but the young woman had lapsed into unconsciousness, and a few minutes later expired.

Mrs. Hamilton, who was twenty-three years of age, was the widow of Clifford Hamilton, a marine, who was killed in the Philippine Islands. She was married about five years ago, and two weeks after the wedding her husband was ordered away.

Holmes had boarded with Mrs. Groves for several years.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Adolph Lohman, who lived in Bogota, N. J., was shot and killed in his home yesterday afternoon by his former business partner, while his wife and five-year-old child looked on. The murderer, Adolph Gunkel, who had been living in New York, then turned the weapon on himself and died a few minutes before his victim.

Lohman and Gunkel were in partnership in a saloon in West street, New York, until a short time ago, when they failed. Gunkel has since claimed that Lohman saved more money out of the wreck than he did, and has been making frequent trips to Bogota to ask for money.

When Gunkel went to Bogota yesterday he found Lohman in the dining room with his family. Gunkel demanded money again, and Lohman finally became exasperated and said he would never give him a cent.

"All right; I'll give you a little something," Gunkel replied. Gunkel then drew his revolver, and, grasping Lohman's head, fired twice without hitting him. The third shot entered Lohman's ear, and he toppled over, dying. Gunkel then put the muzzle to his temple and sent the fourth shot into his own brain.

SUICIDE OF FORMER BANKER

Howard Maxwell, the deposed president of the Brooklyn Borough Bank, who faced twenty-five years in the penitentiary if convicted on the three charges of forgery and grand larceny brought against him by the King's county grand jury, and who had spent four days in jail in default of bail, cut his throat and severed the artery in his left wrist at his home in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon, and died in the Long Island College Hospital at 5:45 o'clock.

Maxwell used a two-bladed penknife and two razors to slash himself. When he was discovered and removed to the hospital, Maxwell was so weakened by loss of blood that, though operated upon, he could not rally.

It was at 9 o'clock on Monday night that the former president of the Borough Bank and director of the International Trust Company appeared with his attorney, Isaac R. Oeland, before Supreme Court Justice Burr, after having been in a cell at the Raymond street jail since Thursday, and there had his bail of $30,000 accepted.

A tickling cough, from any cause, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation even to very young babies. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the sore and sensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resinous plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb." Demand Dr. Shoop's. Take no other. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

To contradict certain talk and to put the consuming public in possession of the truth, we say in plain words that no one in this town can sell as good coffee as Arbuckles' Ariosa for as little money.

Misbranded and make-believe Mocha and Java, or coffee sold loose out of a bag or a bin, is not as good value for the money, nor can it be sold at as narrow profit, nor reach the consumer under as favorable conditions.

When you buy Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee you get more than 16 net ozs. of straight, wholesome Brazilian coffee from the largest coffee firm in the world, with that firm's direct assurance that they are giving you the best coffee in the world for the money.

SUICIDE FROM DESPONDENCY.

Despondent over loss of employment after nine years on a steady job, Louis McElroy, 32 years old, yesterday shot and killed himself in his home in New York. McElroy had been employed by Douglas Robinson as an engineer and rigger for nine years, up to Saturday, when he was laid off. After he had eaten luncheon yesterday he went into his room and got his revolver. Then he returned to the dining-room. When Mrs. McElroy saw the weapon she tried to wrest it from him. He broke away from her and ran out into the hall. She was dragging at his coat tails until he reached the stairway and ran up toward the roof. His wife followed, crying for help, but when he reached the doorway leading to the roof he put two bullets in his right temple and fell at his wife's feet dead.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOV. 27, 1907.

IN ACCORDANCE with proclamations by President Roosevelt and Governor Swanson, tomorrow will be, in a measure, a dies non, as business in a number of instances will be suspended and many people will observe the day as a holiday. Thanksgiving Day is an American institution, and long before the formation of the federal union it was regarded as a holy day among the first settlers. Its origin has often been given, and while many have looked upon the observance of the day as unnecessary from the fact that thoughtful people should render thanks every day, the custom has spread and its observance is regarded by some in authority as a necessary annual event. At its inception Thanksgiving Day was celebrated as a religious event, during which prayer and thanksgiving consumed the greater portion of the day, the feasting being an incident. It is not so now, as feasting, amusements, excursion trips, &c., have long since cast their shadows over the spiritual import of the day, and while the churches will be opened the larger majority of people will pass them by.

DEVELOPMENTS in regard to the pending prosecutions of whisky dealers for violation of the pure food law indicate that the question as to what should be construed as pure whisky was finally decided by President Roosevelt, to whom the matter was taken by Dr. Wiley, chemist of the Department of Agriculture. The President concurred with the chemist in the opinion that, to meet the requirements of the law, the whisky must be pure spirits, unmixed with neutral spirits, flavoring or coloring matter, which produced the article called "blended whisky." And the requirements of the law should be enforced.

CHARGES that Chicago is rapidly becoming the greatest "white slave" center of the world and that a powerful syndicate for traffic in young girls exists in the city, has stirred religious and settlement workers to form an organization for the express purpose of combatting the evil. At a meeting of ministers, lawyers and settlement leaders last week plans were laid for the work. It is devoutly to be wished that the organization may meet with success, but it must be remembered that reforming Chicago is up on hill business.

THERE are indications that Secretary Cortelyou will award nearly all of the $100,000,000 note issue to banks instead of private subscribers. It is remembered that Mr. Vanderbilt once had something to say about the public!

DISPATCHES from Chicago state that there is to be a general reduction in the price of produce, but it is feared that the public will receive no tangible proof of this announcement.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Nov. 27.

President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving turkey has arrived at the White House by express from Westerly, Rhode Island. The big bronze bird weighs 28 pounds minus feathers and gobble and is declared by Steward Pinckney to be one of the most promising looking turkeys that ever crossed the White House threshhold. The proof of the turkey, as well as the pudding, will be discovered at 7:30 p. m. Thanksgiving Day when the President and his family sit down to dinner after their return from Virginia. It is said that no guests are expected outside of near relatives. Admiral and Mrs. Cowles and their children will probably help eat the Rhode Island gobbler. The President and Mrs. Roosevelt will spend most of Thanksgiving Day near Montpelier, Virginia. After visiting Madison's grave, Mr. Roosevelt will have journeyed to the tombs of all the presidents whose remains rest south of Mason and Dixon's line.

Probably as a result of the fact that large numbers of men have been recently thrown out of employment by railroads and manufacturing establishments because of unfavorable financial conditions, the applications for employment on the Panama Canal received at the offices of the Isthmian Canal Commission have recently increased thirty per cent.

This country has had to call upon the strong boxes of Europe for more than $100,000,000 in gold to help relieve the money stringency and with this enormous importation the end is not yet, though improvement is marked. The quotations for currency premium today were about the lowest since the stringency began.

Thomas P. Gore and Robert L. Owens, Oklahoma's two senators who have just arrived in the city for their first session, were at the State, War and Navy Department this morning, paying their respects to the executive heads.

As a love-feast, the Bryan dinner held last night was an unqualified success. Those who attended and those who spoke were all friends of Bryan. Among those who stayed away was Senator Daniel. Some disappointment was manifested that Bryan failed to elaborate upon his remedy for the financial evils of the country which he announced a few days ago in Washington.

All the guests and members of the wedding party are assembled in Washington for the marriage of Miss Edith Root and Lieut. Ulysses S. Grant III at the home of the bride's parents, Secretary of State and Mrs. Root, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. It will be an elaborate affair. Miss Edith Wales, of New York, cousin of the bride, will be Miss Root's only attendant. Mr. Potter Palmer, of Chicago, best man, arrived in this city late last night with his mother, Mrs. Potter Palmer. The ushers will be Elihu Root, jr., and Edward Wales Root, Gustav Schwab, of New York; Lieut. Robert Ralston, Lieut. Marion Howze and Edward McLean. Among the elaborate gifts which have been received at the Root residence, is a silver breakfast service, which had belonged to Lieut. Grant's grandmother, Mrs. U. S. Grant. Gen. and Mrs. Frederick Grant, father and mother of the bridegroom, sent a diamond tiara and a handsome tea set. President and Mrs. Roosevelt sent a painting of the south portico of the White House. It had a special significance, for, it is said, within the White House, where Lieut. Grant was an aide to the President, and Miss Root appeared as daughter of the Secretary of State that the courtship had its beginning. Capt. Diaz, son of the President of Mexico, sent 10,000 white jardenias packed in three boxes. These flowers closely resemble the Cape Jasmine.

Admiral Evans was in the city today and said the battle ships would all be ready to sail from Hampton Roads for the Pacific on December 16.

Financial conditions in the middle west are rapidly improving, according to comptroller of the currency Ridgely, who returned today from a business trip to Chicago.

Today's Telegraphic News.

Mrs. Bradley's Trial.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—The beginning of the end of the trial of Mrs. Bradley is now in sight. The unexpected brevity of the testimony of the expert alienists of the defense brought its case to a close yesterday, sooner than was anticipated. It is now probable that the government will complete its evidence in rebuttal today, leaving the way clear for the addresses to the jury, which will consume several days.

Archibald Livingston, clerk in Senator Brown's office in Salt Lake, continued his testimony in rebuttal at the opening of court today. He identified the railroad ticket signed by Mrs. Bradley. He said there was nothing unusual in the appearance or manner of Mrs. Bradley on her departure from Salt Lake. "In the summer of 1906," he added, in reply to the questions of the government's attorneys, "she came to the office and we talked about Brown. She asked if I thought he would marry her. I said I didn't, and she said 'he'll have to, or I'll blow his head off.'"

Captain Williams, Officers Burlingame, Mullings and Grant gave as their opinion that Mrs. Bradley was rational.

Something of a sensation was produced by the testimony of Mrs. Thorneburg, police matron, who was with Mrs. Bradley the night of December 3, after the shooting.

"I said 'You must have been crazy'" said Mrs. Thorneburg, "'To have shot a man.'

"'Ah, no' Mrs. Bradley said, "'I was not crazy. I am far from being insane.'"

Attorney Christenson, of Salt Lake, declared that Arthur Brown had admitted the parentage of Mrs. Bradley's two little sons.

Recess was then taken.

Massacre of Christians.

Vienna, Nov. 27.—While his rear guard completes the work of plunder, arson and murder in Diarbekr, Ibrahim is now carrying the Armenian Christian slaughter into the adjoining Asiatic Turkish provinces. In Diarbekr there is little more to be done. It is reported from the city of Diarbekr, capital of the province, that at least 1,500 men women and children have been slain and that a far larger number saved their lives only by abandoning all their property and instant flight.

The weather in the mountains is already severe and many of the refugees must perish from exposure. An immense amount of loot has fallen into the hands of Ibrahim's troops.

Villages have been burned by the score and vast stretches of country, formerly populous and well cultivated, have been transformed into uninhabited deserts, marked here and there by heaps of charred ruins. The atrocities praticed on the inhabitants have been horrible beyond description.

The villages through which the Turkish force is now passing are suffering a similar fate. It is Ibrahim's purpose to make a clean sweep. The reason for the campaign is not very clear, though there are vague stories of suspected conspirators among the Armenians against the Sultan's rule.

The New Douma.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 27.—The new Douma, supposed at first to be a mere tool of the Czar, is in almost as bad odor with court today as its two predecessors. The majority's action last night in refusing to recognize Russian autocracy as accepted is a direct blow at the reactionists.

The court party took vast plans to secure a majority of subservient members at the last election, believed they had succeeded by a comfortable margin and are furious at the unexpected wrecking of their plans.

The failure of the reactionaries' plans is especially exasperating to the Czar's supporters, inasmuch as they had relied on a show of unqualified loyalty in the Douma to facilitate the government loan.

Attempted Assault.

Steubenville, O., Nov. 27.—The police are at work in an effort to apprehend two men who attempted a criminal assault on Mary Simpson, 16-year-old daughter of Robert Simpson. The girl was found in the yard of her home last night gagged, hands and feet tied and almost unconscious from exposure. The girl says two masked men followed her home from a neighbors, and struck her down as she reached the gate. She attempted to scream and was gagged, tied and dragged into the yard. The assailants were frightened away by a pedestrian and fled, leaving the girl helpless. She was not found for several hours. She says both men were Americans and believes she could identify them.

Riotous Italians.

New York, Nov. 27.—It took one hundred New York policemen wielding clubs with all their vigor nearly half an hour to quell a riot between Italian stokers and coal passers coaling the big Cunarder Mauretania today. The coal passers and firemen were well armed with revolvers and clubs, and before the police arrived half a score had been wounded. The cause of the fight is unknown and all of the injured with two exceptions were carried off by their friends. Two of the Italians were taken under arrest to St. Vincent's Hospital where their wounds were dressed. The others rioters finally fled before the onslaught of police clubs.

His official schedules show a total of 1,230 miles for the entire distance, but owing to the circuitousness of some wagon roads he has followed and the number of miles lost through mistakes, the grand total is estimated at nearly 1,300.

DANIEL AND BRYAN.

As stated in the Gazette's Washington correspondence yesterday, Senator Daniel and Mr. W. J. Bryan met in a Washington hotel yesterday and had a conversation concerning politics.

Senator Daniel was conversing with a group of his colleagues when Mr. Bryan stepped from the elevator. The Nebraskan joined the group, and shook hands with the Virginia Senator.

"I like you personally, Mr. Bryan," said Senator Daniel, "but I don't like your methods."

"To what do you object particularly?" asked the Nebraskan.

"I object particularly, sir, to your attempt to dictate to the democratic party," responded Senator Daniel, promptly.

"When did I ever attempt to dictate to the democratic party?" came from Mr. Bryan.

"You dictated to it in 1900, sir, when you refused to run for President unless the free silver plank was retained in the platform," Senator Daniel answered.

"Then you did not approve of the platform in 1900," asked Mr. Bryan.

"I certainly did not," replied the Senator. "I said then it would be fatal."

"Well, I am glad to know that you did not agree with it, for I had always supposed that as you were on the platform committee, you had a hand in its making."

"I was on the platform committee, but it was under protest. You stuck that silver plank in that platform, and you dictated the making of the platform of 1900. You have attempted too much to dictate to the party, and you are making a mistake in doing it. As I said, I like you personally, but I can't agree with some of your ideas, and if you want to succeed, you must quit riding rough shod over all the members in the party."

This took them again back to the convention of 1896, and reopened the discussion, in which Senator Daniel again said that he did not agree at the time with the platform.

"And what's more, if you are going to insist on making a platform and ruling your party before you will become a candidate, you should quit taking your cue from the Independence League."

"Well now, Senator, if you have the idea that I am taking my cue from anybody, we should not talk any more about this subject," replied Mr. Bryan, and then they again told each other how they liked the other personally, and parted in a friendly way.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Proceedings in the Court of Appeals yesterday were as follows:

Taylor, receiver, vs. Sutherlin Meade Tobacco Company; fully argued and submitted.

THE BRYAN DINNER.

William J. Bryan was last night tendered a banquet and reception by the United Democracy of the District of Columbia. Five hundred democrats partook of the three-dollar dinner, and more than double that number participated in the reception and feast of oratory which followed.

While the capacity of the Raleigh Hotel banquet hall placed a limit on the attendance, the "lid" was completely off as to enthusiasm, and the long speech of Mr. Bryan, like the half dozen shorter ones in his praise which preceded it, afforded opportunity for repeated and continued demonstrations of political accord and personal regard for the guest of honor.

Mr. Bryan utilized the occasion to set forth at length a closely-reasoned analogy between the policies of President Roosevelt and those he believes should be adopted in the administration of the government. From this viewpoint Mr. Bryan's speech was regarded by the prominent democrats who heard it as a decidedly important and timely party deliverance.

Mr. Bryan's analysis of President Roosevelt's political views was unique. Four of the Roosevelt policies, he said, were democratic, and four of them were undemocratic, while there were four other democratic principles which the President did not advocate.

"If you ask me whether the President is a democrat, I must answer that it would be unfair to him and unfair to the democratic party to call him a democrat. The President is democratic in spots."

Mr. Bryan designated the President's democratic and un-democratic "spots" as follows:

Doctrines Roosevelt has stolen from democratic party: Railroad regulation; enforcement of law against trusts; income tax; arbitration in labor disputes.

Democratic doctrines Roosevelt has not indorsed: Tariff reform; election of Senators by direct vote; right of Filipinos to ultimate independence; restraint of government by injunction.

Un-democratic doctrines which Roosevelt has indorsed: National incorporations of railroads and other interstate corporations; ship subsidy; an asset currency; spirit of militarism.

"Roosevelt has not prosecuted all the trusts and has not recently made any effort to secure additional anti-trust legislation."

Secretary Taft admits that tariff revision is necessary, although he yields to his habit of postponing, and would put the reform off until after the election."

"You will find that the democrat looks at public questions from the standpoint of the masses and asks what will be best for the people as a whole, while the republican leaders eulogize the captains of industry and regard the employers as a sort of trustee to whom the government should give all that is intended for employes."

"Why do republican leaders favor centralization? Because the great corporate interests want to get away from State legislation."

"The republican leaders have so tied the country to Wall street that eighty millions of people must shiver when the Wall street speculators get cold."

In concluding his address Mr. Bryan said:

"The time is ripe for a democratic appeal to the democratic sentiment of the country. I believe that in the coming Congress our democratic Senators and Representatives will prove themselves equal to the task imposed upon them and demonstrate the fidelity of the party to democratic principles. Then, with a united party, we can face a divided opposition and enter the campaign with the assurance of victory. I do not know who will be the democratic nominee but I will say that if I am that man, I would prefer to make the race without any national committee, without any campaign funds, and on straight principles, that will appeal to the conscience of the voters. There should be a law that in every campaign the campaign funds should be labeled, from whence they come, how much, and to whom will go the benefits."

Others spoke also. From Commissioner J. J. Hagan, of New York, came the word that Tammany will support Mr. Bryan as its choice for the presidential nomination, and from John Sharp Williams came the announcement that the South puts the democratic party ahead of everything else, and that the time has come when there is harmony enough in the party that Mr. Bryan can be elected.

FITZHUGH LEE DAY.

The appreciation of Fitzhugh Lee, soldier, statesman and gentleman, pronounced by Major Robert W. Hunter yesterday at the Jamestown Exposition, was sympathetically friendly, critically just, and withal a tribute of praise for the man who had been honored with the highest civic gift in the power of the people of the State and who had died at the head of the great enterprise now nearing its end—the Jamestown Exposition.

Friends of Lee who had been his confidants in life, and his admirers, a great host of them, occupied the stage and the floor and gallery of the Auditorium at the memorial exercises held yesterday morning, beginning at 11:30 o'clock. From all over the State there were present men prominent in civic, political and military walks of life, whose occupations had brought them into intimate companionship with the man whose memory was being honored. Richmond, where General Lee had his home for years, both while governor of the State and as a private citizen, sent down a big delegation.

Requiem music was provided by Ellery's Royal Italian Band. Joseph Bryan, of Richmond, presided over the exercises. Major Robert W. Hunter, the orator of the occasion, a close friend of General Lee, historian of the State Department of Military Records of Virginia, was well qualified to pronounce the eulogy. He paid tender tribute to the character and accomplishments of the first president of the Exposition.

City Council.

There was a two-hours-and-a-half session of the City Council last night.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the members of the Board of Aldermen were present, and the business generally was transacted without discussion and by unanimous votes.

An ordinance to dispose of certain real estate belonging to the city near the outlet lock of the old Alexandria canal to the Old Dominion Glass Works for $600 was read three times and passed.

Later a resolution directing the Corporation Attorney to draw up a lease of the property to the glass works was received from the Common Council, that board having laid the ordinance providing for sale on the table.

Mr. Hill was opposed to concurring in the action of the lower board. Such procedure would incur an unnecessary expense. The Old Dominion Glass Company, which desired to purchase the property, would fulfill its obligations to the city. The company had already spent from $15,000 to $20,000 on property, formerly acquired.

Mr. Summers spoke on the same lines. The company desired to purchase the property, not to lease it. It was their intention to erect dwelling houses on it.

Mr. Ballenger asked if a lease should not be advertise as is a sale.

Messrs. Hill and Marbury said Council was not required to advertise a lease. The Corporation Attorney had given an opinion to that effect.

Mr. Louis Brill of the Common Council, who was present, said the Old Dominion Glass Company would during the next two or three weeks pay for the property formerly acquired as well as for that now being negotiated for.

Mr. Hill moved to lay the resolution over. His motion was carried, after which the board adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The meeting was called to order shortly before 8 o'clock. At the opening of the session Mr. Uhler announced that he would like to have a paper carrying an appropriation of $1,500 for the schools, which had been presented at the last meeting withdrawn.

The Chair stated that the appropriation had been improperly passed on the night of its introduction and directed that the Board of Aldermen be informed on the subject.

A resolution was presented by Mr. Snowden relative to obtaining possession of the north end of the east wing of the market, now occupied by Aaron Odell, and Mr. L. H. Thompson was appointed under the resolution as special agent to give the tenant the proper legal notice to vacate in order that the city may secure the place at once, it being stated that it was needed in connection with the proposed improvements of the office of the Clerk of the Corporation Court.

Mr. Snowden explained that he had introduced the measure, being a member of the sinking fund commissioners, so that the legal method could be taken.

A petition of Mr. E. J. Evans for permission to re-shingle the roof of a shed in the rear of his home, 322 south St. Asaph street, was upon motion of Mr. Brill referred to the street committee. Mr. Leadbeater stated that he was informed that some of the adjoining property owners objected.

Councilman Birrell introduced resolutions directing the committee on finance to ascertain the cost of an up-to-date fire alarm system and also the cost of a combination police patrol wagon and ambulance. The matters were referred to the finance committee.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Burke that a committee consisting of two members of each body be appointed to confer with officials of the Southern Railway Company for the purpose of having switches placed on certain undeveloped property owned by the city near the old canal. The Chair appointed Messrs. Burke and Williams to constitute the committee.

Mr. Marshall introduced a resolution that the Corporation Attorney associate some attorney with him for the purpose of bringing the matter of the use of Henry street by the Washington Southern Railway Company now before the Council to a final issue.

Mr. Marshall stated that he introducted the resolution at the request of a number of people who reside in that vicinity. He stated that it was almost impossible for wagons to get over that throughfare, and expressed hope that the matter would be brought to a final issue.

Mr. Spinks—"I don't think the matter will cost much money. I hope the matter will be adopted so the Corporation Attorney can act at once."

Mr. Strauss—"I move that the resolution be adopted."

The Chair suggested that the matter be referred. He thought the resolution rather broad in its scope and thought Council ought to have something more definite to work on.

Mr. Spinks then moved that the committee, which would have charge of the matter, be instructed to take action in the premises before the circuit court convenes.

The matter was referred.

Mr. Marshall then offered a resolution that the general laws committee take action to revoke the use of Fayette street by the Washington Southern Railway Company.

Mr. Spinks said that the matter came before Council over a year ago and that Mr. Duke, representing the railway company, told a council committee that both tracks would soon be removed. Mr. Spinks asserted that Council did not desire the railroad companies to remove their tracks, but simply wanted them to fix up the street over which the track is laid. Mr. Spinks said that property in the neighborhood of the railroad tracks is not worth one-half of its assessed value. Continuing Mr. Spinks said that the city's improvements west of Payne street on King had not materially benefited the city, owing to the bad condition in which the railroads had left Henry and Fayette streets.

The Chair was heartily in favor of street improvements, but thought the resolution rather radical. The Chair also stated that after some trouble the city got the railroad company to bring the freight depot back into the city and expressed hope that the passenger station might be brought back some day, and advocated going slowly in the matter.

Mr. Spinks again arose and stated that he was not hostile to railroads.

Mr. Williams—"I am opposed to the resolution because it is too drastic."

Mr. Spinks—"When the railroads discontinued the use of the streets they forfeited the rights to use the streets."

Mr. Williams then outlined a conference held with Mr. Duke, he stating that they got the freight depot moved back into the city. He said that he was opposed to the resoultion in its present form.

Mr. Marshall said that he offered the resolution with his "eyes open." His idea in offering it was to have the streets fixed, not to make the railroad company remove its tracks.

Mr. Leadbeater thought this was an inopportune time to offer the resolution, and expressed his opposition in regard to the matter.

Mr. Spinks offered an amendment that a special committee be appointed to take necessary action in the premises.

An amendment was offered by Mr. Williams that the corporation attorney be instructed to confer with the city engineer and ascertain the condition of Henry and Fayette streets, after which they are to report to council, and proceed against the railroad company for the purpose of securing a betterment of the condition of these two thoroughfares.

Mr. Monroe withdrew his motion to refer both papers to the street committee and after a long debate Mr. Brill moved to lay the whole matter on the table and this was carried. Mr. Spinks continued arguing on the subject and said that the matter of Henry street was a matter for the courts to decide, but that the ordinance presented tonight was drawn up by the Corporation Attorney. This matter would have been settled long ago but it was held in abeyance because an election was coming off."

The Chair said that Mr. Spinks was making improper insinuations and that he resented them for himself as well as for the other members of Council.

Mr. Spinks said that he apologized, and stated that he was not alluding to Council. He thought the Chair had misunderstood him. He said it was not his intention to cast any reflection on any one.

Mr. Williams asked Mr. Spinks if it was the legislative or judiciary that had delayed the matter, and Mr. Spinks replied that it was the latter.

A resolution offered by Mr. Uhler carrying with it an appropriation of $1,500 for the schools was laid over under the rules. Mr. Uhler stated that his reason for again offering it was that there was some irregularity the last time it came up for consideration.

An ordinance to sell the Old Dominion Glass Company two parcels of land, owned by the city, situated near the old canal, for the sum of $600 came over from the Aldermen.

This provoked a long debate. Some of the members desired to know why the glass company desired one piece of this property, a strip of forty feet, when they did not own the property on which it has its plant located. It was explained that the glass company simply desired the property to prevent any one building, it being said that such a factory needs plenty of light and air.

Many of the members expressed a willingness to grant the glass company any reasonable concessions, but wanted the city's interests protected.

Messrs. Hellmuth, Burke and Leadbeater said they did not know that the glass company did not own the land on which the works stood, and Mr. Risheill suggested that the property be leased, instead of sold to the company.

Finally upon motion of Mr. Williams, it was decided to have the Corporation Attorney prepare a lease for the property in question for an equal time that the Old Dominion Glass Company now holds a lease for the ground it now occupies.

Mr. Birrell announced that a number of ladies, representing the various Confederate organizations, desired a speedy report of the light committee's purpose relative to placing a gas lamp at the Confederate monument. He also said that copies of the building laws could not be obtained, and he stated that one builder in the city had told him that he didn't know what the laws were.

Mr. Leadbeater said that changs should be made before the laws were printed. Mr. Leadbeater also stated that were it not for the lateness of the hour he would ask for a little time to talk on extending the city's limits.

Mr. Brill moved that a joint session be held for the purpose of electing school trustees. The Aldermen were so informed and a joint session was then held.

JOINT SESSION.

The session was presided over by alderman Curtin. Nominations for trustees were made as follows: Mr. Burke nominated Mr. Laurence Stabler, from the first ward; Mr. Strauss, nominated Mr. A. H. Thomson, from second ward; Mr. Monroe nominated Mr. W. J. Boothe from third ward, and Mr. Marshall nominated Dr. W. M. Smith from fourth ward. All of the nominees were unanimously elected. The joint session then dissolved, and council adjourned.

BUSINESS INCREASING.

Business at the new union passenger station adjoining this city has been steadily increasing since the two-cent rate went into effect. About five hundred persons take evening trains at the new depot. The reason is apparent and was given in a succinct manner by a man in Washington a day or two ago. "That new station in Washington is a beauty all right," said he, "but my advice to all persons coming from Richmond to Washington is to get off the train at Alexandria and take a street car to the capital. By getting off at Alexandria you save a little money. The fare from Richmond is $2.15. If you buy a ticket to Washington it is $3 50, or $1.35 for a ride of eight miles on the steam cars. The fare on the electric cars is 15 cents. The difference in time is worth the difference in money. Besides, you get a car at the terminus of the Alexandria line, and go to any old place for a nickel, thereby saving 45 cents of the cab fare. There are some ways to get even with the railroads if the public will exercise a little ingenuity."

THE DAILEY QUARTETTE.

The announcement that the Dailey Quartette of Philadelphia will come to this city next Monday and remain for ten days will be received with unusual interest. They are coming to assist in the evangelistic meeting at the Second Presbyterian Church, and will sing special pieces as well as lead congregational singing every morning and evening during the series. Mr. Dailey, his son and two daughters have been heard here before, and every one who heard them is enthusastic over their coming. Rev. Richard Orme Flinn, of Atlanta, who will conduct the services, is a pastor and preacher of unusual power and attractiveness. He will conduct a Bible study class at 10:30 each morning, and will preach every evening at 7:30. All in the city are invited to the services.

FOOTBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Club and the Warwick Athletic Club, of Washington, will play a game of football near Colross, Thanksgiving morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Warwicks now hold the championship of the District of Columbia and the Alexandrian's hope to defeat them tomorrow.

The Alexandria Athletic Club football team will play the Randolph Macon Academy team of Front Royal, on the old fair grounds Thanksgiving Day at 2:30 p. m. sharp. The Alexandria line up will be made from the following players:—Ale (capt.); Chillcott (mgr); Grim, McBride, Stanton, Cockrell L, Cockrell K, Hayden, Cook, Robinson, Meade, Hall, Hamilton and Howard.

SENT ON TO THE GRAND JURY.

The case of Toots Olden, colored, charged with assaulting and robbing Thomas Colbert, also colored, came up in the Police Court this morning. Commonwealth's Attorney Brent conducted the prosecution. The assault and robbery occurred last Wednesday night at the corner of Princess and Washington streets. Olden was sent on to the grand jury.

William Watson, who yesterday entered a residence on King street and took therefrom a silk umbrella, was brought before the court this morning. He, too, was sent to the grand jury.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Fitzgerald Council Knights of Columbus will hold their regular monthly social session tonight. The following prominent members of the order will be present and deliver addresses; Rev. Walter B. Noon, O. P., of Des Moines Council; Eugene P. O'Neil, ex-Mayor of Phoenix, Ariz., and Grand Knight of Phoenix Council, and Jno. J. O'Neil, of Scranton, Pa., Diocesan President of the Father Matthew Total Abstinence Society. The address will be interspersed with music and literary numbers. J. J. O'Shea, esq., Washington's well-known elocutionist, being down for a recitation.

DEATH OF MRS. McDONOUGH.

Mrs. Harriett W. McDonough died this afternoon at 3 o'clock at her residence, 219 south Royal street. Mrs. McDonough came here from Hoboken, N. J., during the late war, her husband, the late F. M. McDonough, having charge of the commissary department stationed there at the soldier's rest. She had been a member of Trinity M. E. Church for 30 years. Mrs. McDonough leaves one daughter, Mrs. F. E. Ludwig, of Braddock Heights, and four grandchildren, children of the late Anna C. Baggett.

CAR OFF THE TRACK.

The trailer of a north bound electric train was derailed near the intersection of King and Fairfax streets about ten o'clock last night and ran west on King street half a square before the train was stopped. At that time the rear end of the trailer was almost to the curb on the north side of the street. The passengers were transferred to the motor car which proceeded to Washington. The derailed car was not replaced upon the track until this morning.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Watson, charged with entering a dwelling and stealing therefrom a silk umbrella, was sent on to the grand jury.

Robert Dailey, colored, charged with using abusive language towards an acquaintance, was dismissed.

A white man, suspected of lunacy, was sent to jail.

Toots Olden, colored, charged with assaulting and robbing Thomas Colbert, also colored, was sent on to the grand jury.

A man, charged with assault, was dismissed.

PLANKING REMOVED.

The planking which formerly surrounded the Fayette street depot has been removed. The men who were engaged in the work were unable to say what the Washington-Southern Railway Company proposes to do with the old structure. They were merely ordered to remove the planking. The platform on the east was on what should have been the pavement on the east side of Fayette street, between Cameron and Queen.

DONATION DAY.

Tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day, will be Donation Day at the Alexandria Hospital and the managers earnestly request contributions of groceries, provisions, household articles, &c., from the citizens. Each year a large number of patients are treated gratuitously at the hospital, but it is only through the hearty co-operation of its many friends that its measure of usefulness has been so large.

NAVAJO AND MY GRACE.

At Bennings on yesterday, Navajo won the steeplechase, the finish being the best of any steeplechase during this meeting. On Saturday last My Grace won the steeplechase at the same place. Both horses are owned by Mr. Courtland H. Smith, of Alexandria county.

CHILDREN'S HOME.

The Children's Home will be open tomorrow from 8 a. m. until 10 p. m. to receive Thanksgiving donations, and the managers hope the good people of this city will respond liberally, as this is a worthy object.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The little daughter of Fanny Smith, colored, who was so seriously burned at the fire near the old canal yesterday afternoon, died at the Alexandria Hospital a few hours after she had been taken to that institution.

The funeral of the late David B. Cook took place this morning, at 10 o'clock, from Mr. B. Wheatley's undertaking establishment. Rev. Dr. W. F Fisher, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiated and the interment was in the National Cemetery.

The fair being held this evening from 4 to 10 p. m. by the Girls' Friendly Society in the parish hall of Christ Church, offers an opportunity to those wishing pretty hand-made articles, embroideries, etc., for Christmas gifts, at moderate prices.

The annual memorial services will be held at the Opera House next Sunday night by the Alexandria Elks. The preparations have been completed and an interesting programme will be presented. Congressman Sheppard, of Texas, will be the orator of the occasion.

Bank Officers in Danger.

New York, Nov. 27.—Following the tragic death of Howard Maxwell, disgraced President of the Borough Bank of Brooklyn, who cut his throat yesterday, the statement that Arthur Campbell, cashier of the institution had turned State's evidence and the riotious scenes that followed the arrest of three Jenkins Brothers has cast Brooklyn into a turbulent state. In consequence all of the persons directly concerned in the closing of the various banks have been warned to keep off the streets, as police fear they may be assaulted.

Panic in an Asylum.

Morristown, N. J. Nov. 27.—Fire of mysterious origin in the top floor of the house occupied by the women nurses employed in the Morris Plains state asylum for the insane caused a panic among the patients early today and the attendants had great difficulty preventing a wild stampede. No one escaped, however, and the firemen worked so quickly that the fire was confined to the nurses' house. The nurses were driven out of their beds by the smoke and many suffered from fright and shock

Watson Ends His Journey.

Weston finished at 12:15 p. m. his 1,300-mile journey on foot from Portland, Me., to Chicago, in one of the greatest demonstrations Chicago has ever seen.

Killed Wife and Himself.

London, Ohio, Nov. 27.—Charles Neer aged 45, a wealthy farmer, living near this place, shot his crippled wife dead while in a drunken frenzy. He came home intoxicated. After killing his wife he turned the gun on himself. The first shot was not successful. He then calmly reloaded his revolver and killed himself at the second shot. The shots aroused his daughter and her aged grandmother, but at the point of the gun and under threats of instant death he forced them back into their rooms.

Woman Commits Suicide.

New York, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Viola Pittfield, wife of the building superintendent of the hippodrome, committed suicide by inhaling illuminating gas at her home today. Her body was found by her husband seated in a chair in her room with the end of a hose attached to a gas pipe firmly clutched in her mouth. The couple had been married two years, and Pittfield knew no reason why she killed herself.

NOTICE

ALEXANDRIA PUBLIC.

I have this day accepted the agency for the Patent Fin Hot Water Heater. It is now on exhibition in my store where you can inspect same. It is the most modern up-to-date Gas-heated Hot Water Radiator in the World.

When it is considered that we must depend on some method of artificially heating our homes and public places practically half the year, and that during this time our life is largely spent indoors in an artifical atmosphere and temperature, it certainly seems natural that we should use methods of heating that would not endanger health (by violating Nature's laws of physics and physiology), nor be needlessly expensive and wasteful. Yet, the fact is, a very small proportion of our homes and business places are healthfully, comfortably and economically heated.

The Patent Fin Hot Water Radiator does this or otherwise you may re-return it. Come in and let us explain it.

FIGHTING IN ALGERIA.

Ten thousand of the fiercest Beni Nasseu tribesmen swooped down on the French camp at Lalla Meghnia, Algeria, yesterday, and were beaten off with a loss of 1,200 killed. The fighting continued for a long time and was conducted on the part of the tribesmen apparently with total disregard for their lives. At one time the French infantry were in danger of being surrounded, but they finally disengaged themselves from their perilous position by a most brilliant charge of the Spahis. The route of the Arabs was completed by vigorous shelling by the artillery. The French loss was eight killed. The Arabs were not discouraged by this severe repulse, but re-formed their forces and, in addition, directed their efforts to rousing other tribes. The fighting was resumed yesterday and the booming of cannon could be heard throughout the afternoon. The results of the battle now on are unknown at present.

"For Virginia" is the motto now in the Social Economy Building, Jamestown Exposition. The illustrated addresses are being planned to further the social welfare movement so active in the leading cities of the State. Steps already taken in Richmond, Norfolk, Roanoke and other cities give promise of creditable achievement during the next twelve months.

Then all Virginia is interested in the child labor exhibit which anticipates the presentation of this vital subject which will be made to the whole State after the close of the exposition.

Tuberculosis, too will receive attention in every Virginia city possessing a live health board, progressive commercial club, or an alert woman's club. This campaign will be pushed along by the big exhibition to be held in Richmond next spring.

As an aid to all of the social activity an interesting programme is offered in the Social Economy Building daily.

The finest Coffee Substitute ever made, has recently been produced by Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis. You don't have to boil it twenty or thirty minutes. "Made in a minute," says the doctor. "Health Coffee" is really the closest Coffee Imitation ever yet produced. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Health Coffee Imitation is made from pure toasted cereals or grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert—were he to unknowingly drink it for coffee. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine closet among the reliable household remedies, where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.

ELECTRICAL SUPPLIES

The Gas Is Outclassed

It cannot be compared with electricity when it comes to providing light for reading purposes.

Electric light is strong, clear and steady, and does not injure the eyes. Not so with gas. It is constantly jumping, and plays havoc with the eyes.

An Electric Light

system should be installed in your home or office. We'll it for you at a reasonable cost. Estimates cheerfully given upon any work in our line.
